Synod shall elect a chairman, a vice-chairman, a first clerk, and a second clerk, who collectively shall be known as the officers of synod.

3.2

The vice-chairman shall assist the other officers of synod where needed and shall prepare the Press Release of synod.

The first clerk shall be responsible for the preparation of the Acts of Synod. He shall have responsibility for Synod's administration facilities and ensure the timely distribution of materials to the delegates. An assistant recommended by the convening church (see Rules 1.6) shall be appointed to record the Acts of Synod during the open sessions. At the conclusion of Synod he shall be responsible for printing and distributing these Acts.

The second clerk shall prepare all outward correspondence. He shall place a copy of all such correspondence in synod's archives.

3.3

Every synod shall decide whether its chairman and first clerk will be appointed to an advisory committee.

4. ADVISORY COMMITTEES

4.1

A committee shall have from three to five members, and be chaired by the person appointed by synod.

4.2

Unless it has good grounds to believe that a matter can be finalised by a straightforward recommendation, a committee shall submit a written report for consideration by synod. In the case of a substantial matter a committee may first distribute to synod's delegates a provisional report with draft conclusions and recommendations, with the request for written comments by a certain date and time, and thereafter submit a final report to synod.

5. ADVISERS

Synod may resolve to admit for the purpose of giving advice, to a full session or advisory committee, any minister from the bond of churches who has not been delegated to synod, as well as any communicant member from the bond of churches with particular skills or expertise required by synod.

An adviser shall confine his activities in the meeting to giving advice only at the request from the chairman. He shall vacate his place in the meeting after having concluded his advice, and the meeting shall not commence debate until the adviser has done so.

6. VISITORS

Synod shall recognise visitors from other churches, and grant privileges accordingly, as follows:

6.1

Delegates from sister churches will be allowed to address synod in open session for the purpose of passing on greetings and information concerning the particular sister relation; and sit as advisory members in synod's open sessions and advisory committees where they may give advice when they request, or are requested, to do so.

6.2

Delegates from churches with whom we have temporary ecclesiastical contact will be allowed to address synod in open session for the purpose of passing on greetings and information concerning the temporary ecclesiastical contact; to speak in synod's open session when they request, or are requested, to do so on matters specifically pertaining to the temporary ecclesiastical contact; and to sit as advisory members in the advisory committee(s) that deal with the temporary ecclesiastical contact, where they may give advice when they request, or are requested, to do so.

6.3

Delegates from churches with whom we have official contact will be allowed to address synod in open session for the purpose of passing on greetings and information concerning the contact.

6.4

Delegates from churches who desire to establish contact with our churches will be allowed admission to the audience of synod.

All delegates so received will be offered normal Christian hospitality, such as lodging and meals.

6.5

Visitors delegated by other churches must be male in order to be accorded the privileges outlined in Rules 6.1 through 6.4.

7. GENERAL PROCEDURES

After synod has been constituted the chairman shall request the delegates and any advisers then present to rise; and by that action those rising shall be held to reaffirm their agreement with the Word of God and the Confessions. This reaffirmation shall also be required from any person attending for the first time as substitute for another delegate.

7.2

In adopting its Agenda, synod shall examine the status of each item that was not included in the Provisional Draft Agenda; and any such item that is found to contain new matter(s) - this being an item that should have been in the hands of the churches three months prior to the commencement of synod - shall not be taken into consideration by synod.

Synod shall not add any item to the Final Draft Agenda except by special resolution and then only on the grounds of exceptional circumstances.

The Final Draft Agenda as adopted shall become synod's Agenda, to which nothing shall be added.

7.3

The admissibility of an agenda item shall be decided at the time when the item is scheduled for consideration. Submissions not from the churches, except those allowed by the Church Order, shall be received for information only and require no acknowledgment.

All proposals (from the churches and including those of deputies) that are admissible must be tabled and decided upon.

7.4

Members of The Free Reformed Churches of Australia, or of any of its sister churches, shall have the right of admission to the audience of all open sessions.

7.5

The daily closing of synod with prayer shall be by synod's members in alphabetical order of surnames.

7.6

Other than in matters of personal nature, or when otherwise decided by special resolution, synod shall not meet in closed session. Admission to a closed session shall normally be restricted to synod members.

7.7

Synod members shall have free access to any advisory committee's meeting but not speak except at the invitation of the chairman, and then only in an advisory capacity.

The admissibility of proposals must be decided upon with appropriate grounds and recorded in the Acts.

7.8

The Acts of the proceedings of each day shall if possible be presented for adoption at the beginning of the following sitting day.

They shall record all matters of substance under the headings MATERIAL (and ADMISSIBILITY, if applicable), DECISION(S) and GROUNDS. Proposals declared in the affirmative shall be recorded as ADOPTED. Proposals declared in the negative shall be recorded as DEFEATED.

They shall not record any details of the vote or ballot, nor any names of the movers and seconders of proposals, motions and amendments.

8. RULES FOR DEBATE

8.1

Any discussion relating to the introduction of a proposal or motion shall be kept to a minimum and be restricted to procedure and matter-of-fact issues. It shall not include argumentation in support of, or in opposition to, the substance of a proposal or motion except in the wording or the framing thereof.

8.2

No proposal, motion or amendment shall be debated, put to the vote or adopted unless it has been seconded; provided however that the chairman, upon a proposal or motion being moved, may ask the meeting if any delegate opposes it.

If no delegate registers opposition the chairman may declare the proposal or motion carried without debate and without taking a vote.

8.3

A delegate wishing to submit an original proposal, motion or amendment shall, if required by the chairman, put the proposal, motion or amendment in writing.

8.4

Synod may decide to conduct debate on a particular matter in more than one round. In this situation the provisions of these Rules shall apply to each round, provided however that

- in the first round a speaker shall not interact with earlier speakers in that round;
- in the second and following rounds a speaker shall not repeat what he said in earlier rounds;
- in the final round no new matters shall be brought up.

8.5

No speaker shall speak more than once in each round of the debate on the same question, except by way of explanation, or in reply upon any original proposal or motion of which he was the mover, or in reply as the mover of any amendment then before the chair.

8.6

A speaker shall at all times address the chairman.

8.7

Any delegate may, by way of raising a point of order, direct the attention of the chairman to any infraction of the Rules for Debate.

8.8

A speaker shall not be interrupted except on a point of order, in which event he shall refrain from speaking until the point of order has been heard and decided.

8.9

A delegate who was the mover of a proposal, motion or amendment shall, at the conclusion of the speeches of all the other delegates who chose to speak on the matter, have the right of reply. A delegate speaking in reply shall not introduce any new matter but shall strictly confine himself to answering previous speakers.

The following motion may be received when a proposal (or motion) is being debated: "That the proposal (or motion) be amended". In this situation attention must be given to the following points:

1. Every amendment shall be relevant to the proposal or motion on which it is moved, and must substantially support the nature and intent of that proposal or motion.
2. Only one amendment shall be discussed at a time. As often as an amendment is defeated, another amendment may be moved before the original motion is put to the vote.
3. In speaking to an amendment a speaker may give notice of his intention to move a further amendment.
4. Where an amendment is adopted, the original motion as amended shall for all purposes of subsequent debate be treated as an original motion.

9. VOTING

9.1

When to vote

Wherever possible, decisions shall be made unanimously; and on matters of principle the chairman shall call for a vote only after every reasonable effort to obtain a consensus has been made.

9.2

How to vote

In taking the vote on any proposal, motion or amendment, the chairman shall ask those in favour to indicate such by show of hands; and he may do so as often as is necessary to enable him to form and declare his opinion as to whether the affirmative or negative has the majority.

9.3

Declaring the result of a vote

A motion or proposal shall be declared 'adopted' by simple majority vote. If the number of votes in favour is equal to the number of votes against, the proposal or motion shall be declared 'defeated'.

9.4

Voting on persons

Questions concerning persons, except on appointments proposed by the officers with the prior consent of synod, shall be decided by secret ballot.

9.5

Counting Rules

- Ballot papers incorrectly filled in and ballot papers left blank shall be declared invalid.
- Those who receive the largest number of votes shall be declared elected, provided that this number is not less than one-half of the number of valid votes cast.
- If there is no result after two free ballots, any subsequent choice shall be restricted to the candidates who received the most votes in the previous ballot. If a ballot results in a tied vote another ballot shall be conducted, and if this results in a further tied vote the decision shall be made by lot after calling upon the Name of the LORD.

10. DEPUTIES

Synod shall appoint its deputies in closed session and provide them with clearly defined written instructions to which deputies shall strictly adhere. Deputies shall submit a written report on their activities. Unless otherwise instructed, they shall submit their report in time for inclusion in the Provisional Draft Agenda.

If a supplementary report is found necessary, it shall present only relevant information that has come to notice after the closing date for the Provisional Draft Agenda.

Deputies must make available at synod for referral and consultation, copies of all correspondence, minutes, and records of other work done. They should also submit the same to the archivist.
